

Alea Lastinger

Alea Lastinger is a senior in high school in Colleyville, Texas. She is a right side hitter in volleyball and member of her school's National Charity League and Student Council Leadership.

Alea joined the Junior Board because it is an opportunity to spread awareness and knowledge of the importance of flu vaccination in honor of her older sister, Emily Lastinger.