

Katie Stein

Katie Stein is a junior in high school in Falls Church, Virginia. She is a softball and basketball player. In her free time, she volunteers at a local animal rescue where she helps rescued dogs and cats find forever homes.

Katie joined the Junior Board because she is passionate about educating others about the dangers of flu. She is motivated to make a difference in honor of her sister, Jessica Stein.