

Mackenzie Barrette

Mackenzie is an 8th grader who lives in Exeter, Rhode Island. She is a cross country runner and alpine skier. In her free time, she volunteers with Save The Bay to clean beaches.

Mackenzie joined the Junior Board because she believes in the importance of flu vaccination. Specifically, she wants to help prevent virus-related fatalities especially among the children and elderly.